GOODNIGHT GT [TDO117]

Dash takes GT to visit his Auntie Ratchet in the country for his first sleepover. It takes GT some time to get used to the country because he is homesick. Auntie Ratchet brings an extra pillow, toys and a wrench to help GT feel more at ease. Dash gets frustrated because GT is keeping him awake with his worries, so Auntie Ratchet takes the boys on a late night drive to see the moon. They meet up with Mags by surprise because Auntie Ratchet called her to join the sleepover. Mags brings GT's favorite wrench, chew toy and pillow with her and he could not be happier. When they get back to Auntie Ratchet's farm, GT falls asleep with ease. Dash realizes that it is difficult to be homesick and he falls asleep with the chew toys from Auntie Ratchet.

TURBO TEACHERS [TDO117]

The Turbo Dogs decide that they will have a special race day with the pit dogs as racers and each of them will teach one how to race. Dash, Mags and Clutch teach their pit dogs how to race fairly. However, Strut takes advantage of Hubcap so that he can help him play dirty tricks on the others to win the race. During the practice lap, Strut turns Mags' GPS into a tickler, makes Dash's horn blare loudly, and rigs the wipers on Clutch's car to go wild. Hubcap begins to realize something isn't right, and he makes some "tune ups" of his own to teach Strut a lesson. When Strut races his car, he has the same dirty tricks played on him plus more. Strut realizes that though it seemed fun to play those tricks on the others, it didn't feel nice when it was done to him.

Jasper, Opal and Pearlie set a trap to find the thief and prove Opal's innocence. Sure enough, Nancy, the millipede, comes into the scene with several pairs of boots on her feet. She wanted to dance at the big "boot scoot" event taking place in the park that night. Because Saphira wouldn't give her time off, she "borrowed" the boots without permission and apologizes. The flowers start arguing with Pearlie, and then start fighting each other. In desperation, Pearlie goes back to Aunt Garnet who scolds her for not following directions and mentions that everything needs a soaking. Pearlie is forced to think about what Aunt Garnet means and figures that the flowers need some rain to calm them down. With Jasper and Opal's help, she sprays water all over the garden. The flowers immediately pose beautifully for the photographers and Pearlie's garden is selected for a cover story.

Willa watches her dad bring in a beautifully wrapped present. She is dying with anticipation and, despite Jenny's protest, goes in search of the gift. Willa ventures into forbidden territory, Dad's office, and finds the present. She cannot contain herself and opens it. It's a broominator, an automatic vacuum cleaner that soon is completely out of control, destroying the house. Dad is furious that Willa almost ruined his special surprise for Grandma Birdie. Willa admits that she should not have gone snooping and agrees to check with Dad before opening things that don't belong to her. She eagerly starts cleaning up the mess she created.

[Educational Message: Do not snoop around; check with an adult before you open something that does not belong to you.]

UP, UP AND AWAY [WIL008]

There is a kite-building contest that Willa and Dooley want to win by building a kite all by themselves. They are very proud of their finished product until they see Lara, Cara and Sarah's enormous kite. Willa convinces Dooley that they should start all over and make a bigger kite. However, the bigger the kite, the more difficult it is to fly. In the end, they stick with their first kite, reasoning that it is not the biggest or the fanciest, but it is the one they like the best. Their kite flies the highest and wins the contest.

IF THE BOOT FITS [PEA103]

All the boots from Aunt Garnet's store are missing. Saphira and Pearlle have also found that all of their boots are missing. Saphira immediately concludes that they have been stolen, and blames Opal, calling her the Outback Boot Bandit. Pearlle believes Opal is innocent even though Saphira convinces Gobsmack that Opal is the prime suspect. Jasper, Opal and Pearlle set a trap to find the thief and prove Opal's innocence. Sure enough, Nancy, the millipede, comes into the scene with several pairs of boots on her feet. She wanted to dance at the big "boot scoot" event taking place in the park that night. Because Saphira wouldn't give her time off, she "borrowed" the boots without permission and apologizes. Gobsmack sets up a punishment, which is to be his date for the "boot scoot."

Pearlie gets word that Jubilee Park is going to be inspected for a feature story on beautiful gardens. She goes to Aunt Garnet for help and is given a special mist to make the flowers grow. Although she warns against using too much of the mist, because flowers are very sensitive, Pearlle and Opal go overboard and the flowers get out of control. The flowers start arguing with Pearlle, and then start fighting each other. In desperation, Pearlle goes back to Aunt Garnet who scolds her for not following directions and mentions that everything needs a soaking. Pearlle is forced to think about what Aunt Garnet means and figures that flowers need some rain to calm them down. With Jasper and Opal's help, she sprays water all over the garden. The flowers immediately pose beautifully for the photographers and Pearlie's garden is selected for a cover story.

LUCKY CHARM [TDO101]

GT, who's having a good run with winning races, attributes his success to a good luck charm, which he keeps with him while racing. Stinkbert eavesdrops on GT's conversation with Mags and Dash, then steals the statue with Strut. When GT discovers his statue missing, he doubts his abilities to race. Though he finishes the next race, he doesn't win, which only makes him sadder. His friends try to bolster his self-confidence, reminding GT of his skill, but it doesn't help. GT's belief in himself is finally restored when he makes a record time even after a near-miss accident on the track during a practice run. During the qualifying race, Dash tries returning GT's statue to him after retrieving it from the dump where Stinkbert has tossed it. Realizing that he doesn't need a lucky charm, GT refuses to take it and ends up winning the race.

As a reward for winning first, second or third place in most races, Dash is given the chance to be the main announcer for the "Just-for-Fun" race. But Dash has a fear of public speaking. His friends try to help with their advice. GT teaches him breathing techniques for relaxation, Mags helps him dress like a champion, but tells him to create a signature move for his entrance, and Stinkbert suggests having a good bark. At the next race, Dash shows up to the commentary booth dressed in Mags' champion outfit and does everything his friends suggested. However, instead of making an impression, he ends up appearing foolish and the spectators laugh at his silly antics. Realizing how silly he looks, Dash decides to just be himself and finishes his commentary successfully.

5. The program must be of a substantial length – 30 minutes or more.
6. Quarterly reporting of the schedule and hours of E/I programming to the FCC is required.
7. If E/I programming is preempted, written notice is necessary to identify where and why the E/I programming was preempted.

The Wilder Side Of Las Vegas #2045

When you think of Las Vegas, you might think of the Strip, the casinos, "Sin City". But there's another side to the town, an even wilder side that many people never experience. Jack journeys to the Mirage Hotel, where a special group of bottlenose dolphins lives. These marine mammals participate in a unique program that is helping autistic children. After spending time in the water, Jack is ready to be back on dry land.

Atlantis: Lost and Found (2145)

In the Atlantic Ocean off Nassau in the Bahamas, Jack scuba dives to encounter a sunken Coast Guard cutter teaming with Caribbean Reef Sharks. Then, on nearby Paradise Island, Jack makes an underwater exploration of the Atlantis Resort's rendition of the mythical Lost City. While at Atlantis, the world's largest man-made marine habitat, Jack swims with piranhas.

Zoo to the Max (2146)

Jack pays a visit to the Johannesburg Zoo to see Max, the "most famous gorilla in Africa." After apprehending a fleeing robber that jumped into his zoo compound, Max won fame as the crime-fighting gorilla. At the Zoo, Jack also sees red pandas, a pioneering eland breeding program and Africa's only polar bears.

Dear Alex,

Upon review of several programs, it is my opinion that "Animal Rescue" is an educational and instructional television series for children 16 years of age and younger. As a teacher, lecturer and Doctor of Veterinary Medicine, I feel "Animal Rescue" is specifically designed to educate and inform children about various types of animals and their care, as well as showcasing professional and non-professional people exhibiting selfless dedication assisting animals in need. The programs not only educate youngsters about a wide and diverse range of the world's animals, their habitats and how they live, but they also offer instruction on medical and rehabilitation techniques and address the social aspects and emotional concerns of being a responsible citizen.

As an Adjunct Professor at Western University School of Veterinary Medicine, a lecturer at UCLA Extension and a practicing veterinarian, I would recommend "Animal Rescue" to parents, educators and broadcasters as an excellent example of informational programming serving young viewers.

Sincerely,

Re: "Animal Rescue"

Dear Alex:

You asked me to review the program "Animal Rescue" and provide my opinion as to its educational and informational value for children under 16 years of age. I am happy to do so.

I believe the program exerts a extremely positive influence on young viewers; the stories are wonderful illustrations of the best of human instincts. Its particular strengths are its themes of respect and compassion for all living creatures, its informative instruction on medical rehabilitation treatments and the techniques and teamwork of rescue personnel. It provides valuable information to young viewers about the animals themselves, their habitats, development and behavior, and also promotes awareness of important environmental issues.

"Animal Rescue" strongly promotes the kind of pro-social values that are of inestimable importance in shaping the growth and character of young people. It is a sorely needed antidote to so much of television programming that presents a negative view of society and human behavior. The program is an excellent vehicle for informing and educating children and would be a valuable addition to any broadcaster's lineup. The public interest is well served by this series.

Sincerely yours

Paul Rosenthal
